WORLD'S SERIES OPENS

TUESDAY AT BROOKLYN Bedford boxer has a chance with the champion as hig recent victory over Gene Delmont has increased his stock and that he is worthy to be a contender for the lightweight title.

The semi-final will be between Midget Smith, the Panama champion, and Willie Spencer of New York.

Frankle Johnson of Boston, who faces Kid Lewis of Springfield, claims the distinction of defeating Steve Gustan of Boston, who figured gloriously in the Olympics at Antwerp: Jimmy Lowry of Malden and Johnny Fairbanks of New York.

The remission of the National and American leagues, are primed for the event and perhaps more evenly matched than are world's series contenders generally. It is Cleveland's first champlonship in a major league circuit.

Reports from both the Brooklyn and Cleveland clubs indicate that the applications for reserved seats far outnumber the seats to be disposed of and with the unreserved seats to be sold on the days the games are to be played, it will be a case of "first come, first served."
